

NEW MASONIC OFFICERS.

INSTALLATION OF ROYAL ARCH DIGNATARIES.

ANSWER to the Inquiry of Mr. Josiah Butt to His Brother—Other Manchester News—Personal.

MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, 1121 BULL STREET, BEATTIE BLOCKS, 1.

An interesting occasion in the history of Manchester Royal Arch Chapter, No.

43, Masons, Thursday night, was when the officers for the ensuing term were impresively installed by the retiring High Priest, Rev. Charles N. Van Houten.

These officers are as follows: John Z.

Walker, high priest; J. I. Galloway, King;

W. F. Merchant, scribe; T. H. Betty,

Treasurer; John G. Rice, secretary; W. L.

Walker, captain of host; W. H. Washington, principal sojourner; J. F. DuVal, royal arch captain; N. M. Anderson, master third veil; H. L. Roberts, master second veil; Seiden Bates, first veil; Chas.

N. Van Houten, chaplain, and W. T.

Litgow, tiler.

The occasion was an impressive one, and the remarks of Mr. Van Houten were most appropriate.

THE POLICE COURT.

Archie Crostic was before 'Squire Owens yesterday morning charged with throwing a potato at Mr. M. W. Walker Thursday. He was fined $1.

Mr. M. W. Walker was assessed $2 for assaulting and striking Archie Crostic.

Mr. Walker stated that the crowd of boys who hung on the corner of Fourth and Everett streets made it very disagreeable for the neighborhood.

Thomas Dunham, who was charged with creating a disturbance on Fourth and Everett streets, was discharged.

Henry Wallace (colored) was charged with lighting his brother, Low Brown and John Wallace, on the public highway.

The case was continued until Monday when a rule was issued for John Wallace.

DIED IN DANVILLE.

A few days ago The Times published an inquiry from Josiah Butt, an inmate of the South Home at Austin, Tex., concerning his brother, Charles Butt, who was at one time engaged in business in Richmond. Mr. Butt came from Richmond to Manchester, and for some time was the proprietor of a grocery store at the corner of Eighth and Main streets.

He removed from this place to Danville,

Va., where he died about five years ago.

Mr. Butt is remembered by many people here. He married a Miss Johnston, of Petersburg.

BRIEF MENTION.

Miss Lucy Thornhill left yesterday morning to visit friends and relatives at Washington, D. C.

Misses Fannie Holland and Ada Snellings of New Bern, N. C., who have been the guests of Mrs. R. C. Broadus, returned home yesterday morning.

Miss Sally Boswell, of Petersburg, who has been visiting Miss Eloise Taylor, returned home yesterday morning.

All who sing in the choirs of the various churches in Manchester are invited by Rev. Mr. Vaughan of Nashville, Tenn., to join the choir of the gospel tent,

Thirteenth and Porter streets. The services commence at 8 o'clock every night and will be carried on indefinitely.

Miss Rosa Brimley, of Danville, Va., who has been visiting Miss Eloise Taylor,

returned home yesterday morning.

The Laurel Club gave a delightful sol-ree at their club hall Thursday night. Refreshments were served at midnight and dancing was kept up until about 1:30 o'clock. There were fourteen couples present.

Miss Drusy Panky, who has been visiting Miss Lucy Thornhill, returned home yesterday morning.

There will be a large colored baptism at Mr. Murky's mill, about five miles below

Manchester, on the Broad Rock road, to-morrow between forty and fifty people will be baptized.

All persons who have dogs or goats will have to set out bences on or before

August 1, 1890, or pay a fine. The license can be obtained from the Auditor.

Miss Pattie Jenks, who has been visiting Mrs. J. C. Jenks, left for home yesterday afternoon.

Mr. T. J. Haskins of Hampton, Mr.

W. D. Roberts and Miss Carrie L. Lambert of Norfolk, who have been the guests of Mrs. J. C. Donnelly, 116 Perry street, have returned to their homes.

Mr. E. H. Wells is out after a little Indisposition.

A number of the employees of the Southern railroad shops have been turned off recently.

It was reported in this city yesterday that a man was killed on the Atlantic Coast Line between Manchester and Petersburg. On interviewing the railroad people it was learned that a pig was killed instead of a man.

Mr. William Westley, of Tenth street, lost a child by death yesterday at 11 o'clock. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Officers Installed.

At the regular meeting of R. E. Lee

Camp, No. II, Jr., O. U. A. M., the following officers were installed by Deptute State Councillor J. B. Jewell.

W. H. Whitlock, councillor; G. G.

Williams, vice-councillor; N. B. Ogden, recording secretary; J. S. Taylor, assistant secretary; W. T. Atkinson, treasurer; E. A. Folks, conductor; W. M.

Harmon, warden; Philip Samuel, inside sentinel; T. V. Rudd, outside sentinel;

W. H. Blaue, junior post-councillor;

W. H. Palmer, trustee; John B. Allen, representative to the State Council; W.

H. Adams, alternate.

Friends in Need.

Owing to the small attendance at the meeting called Thursday night in the Y.

M. C. A. parlor, it was deemed advisable not to transact any business, unless present set July 20th, 8:15 P. M. and the date and time for the next meeting were not known.

Surely all who have felt enough interested in the work of helping men additional to drink to lead better lives by an effort toward getting the society in practical shape. Mr. McKeye has again offered the use of the Y. M. C. A. parlor.

No Money for New Companies.

Mr. Montgomery C. Jackson and several well-known young gentlemen from Petersburg, have informed the Governor that they have succeeded in raising a company of forty-eight men and three officers in that city and asked permission to organize. The Governor replied that the appropriation for the State militia was insufficient to support the troops already in service, and that he therefore could not entertain the proposition.

From the Association.

The outing that was to have been held by the boys of the Young Men's Christian Association at Forest Hill Park has been indefinitely postponed on account of the wet condition of the ground.

A committee of the young people have made arrangements to entertain the members of the Christian Endeavor Societies next Thursday night.

Dr. Landrum's Movements.

Rev. Dr. Landrum will preach his farewell sermon at the Second Baptist church on the last Sunday in July. He will spend the month of August with his mother in Georgia, and will begin his work in Atlanta on the first Sunday in September.

City Circuit Court.

Judge Wellford yesterday adjourned the City Circuit Court for the adjourned term.

YOUR PALATE IS